

Food Safety

Highfield Level 1 Award in Food Safety in Catering (RQF)

The objective of this qualification is to prepare learners for employment, or to support a current position within a low-risk role, where there is an element of food handling. This could include bar workers, waiting staff, health care workers, kitchen porters and stock/store room staff.

How long will it take me to achieve this qualification?

The total qualification time for this qualification is 4 hours, all of which are recommended as guided learning hours.

TQT is an estimate of the total number of hours it would take an average learner to achieve and demonstrate the necessary level of attainment to be awarded with a qualification, both under direct supervision (forming guided learning hours) and without supervision (all other time). TQT and GLH values are advisory and assigned to a qualification as guidance.

How is the qualification assessed?

This qualification is assessed by multiple-choice examination.

What next?

On successful completion of this qualification, learners may wish to continue their development by undertaking a Highfield Level 2 Food Safety qualification.

Where can this course be taken?

Through any Highfield approved training centre.
